What this gospel teaches us about sinning against each other and seeking reconciliation rests on the final statement. Jesus abides in the midst of the church, the community of believers who commit themselves to him and live as he did. In the church we are accountable to and for one another because our manner of relating, reconciling, and praying together reveals both our commitment to Jesus and his living presence among us.

STEWARDSHIP: (Tithing)

“I tithe out of deep-conviction that it’s the correct, scriptural thing to do,” says Joseph. “I give without expecting anything in return. But it’s amazing what God can do when you take him as your partner. I am a lot happier than way back when I used to give grudgingly, tight-fistedly, or sometimes not at all.”

Tithing becomes easier if we set aside the Lord’s portion and give it to him.

This weekend, take time to pray and meditate about how you can become better stewards.

Each of us can live as God’s steward.

“For every one to whom much has been given, much is expected...” Luke 12:48.

Your giving is the key to the success of church plans and programs. To help us met our obligations, please pray about TITHING and become GOOD STEWARDS by obtaining Offertory Envelopes available in the Marian Hall as a weekly reminder to support your church.

MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES

God of all goodness, look with love on those who wait for the safe return of their loved ones who serve in the armed forces of their country. In faith and hope we turn to you for comfort. Grant that we may trust in your mercy and send an angel to sustain us as we await their safe return. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
