Mt 18:21-35

NEXT WEEK (Green)

Is 55:6-9
Phil 1:20c 24, 27a
Mt 20:1-16a

The overwhelming, unexpected, compassionate forgiveness of the king makes the servant's behavior toward his fellow servant all the more despicable. It also helps us understand Jesus' response to Peter's question about how often we are to forgive one another. God's forgiveness of us knows no limits and is always granted. Anything less in our own forgiveness of one another brings the same judgment against us that Jesus renders against the "wicked servant."

STEWARDSHIP...a way of life

A brother once said. "I was afraid to start tithing, so I took a step in faith as my neighbor encouraged me to do. I've never regretted it. God has not let me down. He has richly blessed our family spiritually and materially. I'm teaching my children to tithe in a spirit of joy and gratitude."

Tithing becomes easier if we set aside the Lord's portion and give it to him.

STAND FIRM: In time of desolation one should never make a change, but stand firm in the resolutions and decisions that guided one the day before the desolation.

-St. Ignatius of Loyola

Your giving is the key to the success of church plans and programs. To help us meet our obligations, please pray about TITHING and become GOOD STEWARDS by obtaining Offertory Envelopes available in the Marian Hall as a weekly reminder to support your church.

MEMBERS OF THE ARMED FORCES

God of all goodness, look with love on those who wait for the safe return of their loved ones who serve in the armed forces of their country. In faith and hope we turn to you for comfort. Grant that we may trust in your mercy and send an angel to sustain us as we await their safe return. We ask this through Christ our Lord.
