By asking “which commandment in the law is the greatest,” the Pharisees reveal an attitude toward law far different from that of Jesus. Instead of limiting the demand of the law as the Pharisees do to discrete commandments that are kept or not, Jesus teaches that the demand of the law embraces the totality of our relationships with God, self and neighbor. Love defines our relationships; love is the wellspring of obedience to any commandment. Love is the greatest commandment because it is truly the whole Law of God. Living Liturgy
